

LANNIA CHIBANGO

186 Victoria Embankments, Flat 103 Arnleigh Court, Durban 4001, South Africa

+27814314393 . chibangolennia@gmail.com

Personal information

I am a diligent self-driven care worker, with interest in people. I love people. A compassionate person with a thrust to provide safe and reliable care for individuals I feel need it and hence improve their quality of life. I have vast experience in care work both in formal and informal settings including and not limited to providing a safe environment and cost effective use of resources and using them according to guidelines. I work towards promoting a conducive environment both for patient and the whole team by being tolerant and with dignity without prejudice. I am currently looking for care assistant position in the UK.

Key Skills

- Good interpersonal and intrapersonal skills written and verbal
- Listener, team player and paying attention to detail.
- Good time management with strong work ethics
- Good observational and monitoring skills of patients and keeping a track record of change in condition of patient
- Empathetic, patient, caring and eager to learn new things
- Understanding diet for patients, preparing meals that suit different conditions and general house keeping

Employment history

Health Care assistant – Mkoba Poly Clinic (01 August 2011 – July 2014)

Care Worker -

- Taking blood pressure, temperature and weight of patients
- Upkeep of patients including and not limited to bathing, turning them when they are asleep
- Feeding patients and documenting their food and liquid intake
- Administering medication and providing medication support wound care, pressure sore management under instructions by a registered nurse.
- Attending staff meetings, record keeping with confidentiality

- Keeping track record by observing and monitoring changes in patients in respond to treatment
- Immediate response to emergencies at the institution and making sure are safe
- Participating in training activities and induction courses
- General house keep including washing, bathing dressing and helping patients to the toilet
- Undertaking any duty assigned to me by a superior

Education

Senga Secondary, Gweru

Four O levels including English

Further details

Course : Nurse Aide Certificate (Zimbabwe Red Cross Certificate 2011)

Availability: Available immediately

Reference

References available upon request